

LICENSED TIMBER OPERATOR (LTO) TRAINING CLASS SCHEDULE

A Timber Operator License is required for any individual wishing to conduct commercial timber operations on State or private timberland in California. Timber operations are defined in Public Resources Code \(PRC\) 4527. This includes, but is not limited to sawlogs, Christmas trees, fuelwood, or split wood products. PRC 4571 details the necessity for a license.

The training class is available to individuals wanting a Timber Operator License or individuals who desire an introduction to the Forest Practice Act, Forest Practice Rules, and Timber Harvesting Plans.
